

SOCIAL AND OTHER WASHINGTON ORGANIZATIONS

Johnson; captain of king's guards, E. St. C. Thompson; guardians of the tabernacle, T. Hering, S. Ed. Tompkins, and Charles L. Shook; keeper of the exchequer, William Barnum; custodian of the seals, P. P. Rouse; teacher in Israel, Orville Brown; chaplain, the Rev. J. M. Schick, and outside sentinel, R. V. Goldman. The charge to the candidates was delivered by Grand High Priest George C. Ober.

A banquet followed at which speeches were made by prominent members of the Order of the Red Cross. The present officers of Columbia Royal Arch Chapter are Charles W. Otis, excellent high priest; C. B. Matthews, king; W. Ivanhoe Jochum, scribe; P. P. Rouse, secretary; R. B. Nixon, treasurer; J. C. Johnson, captain of the host; A. L. Rogers, acting captain of the host; Harry L. Strang, Jr., principal sejourner; Faber Stegenson, Royal Arch captain; U. E. Claffin, master third vall; Frank W. Stretton, master second vall; Emmett M. Carter, master first vall; J. W. Lucas, sentinel.

First Rank Conferred.

Myrtle Lodge, No. 25, Knight of Pythias, conferred the first rank on two candidates last Tuesday evening before a large attendance of lodge members and visitors. The executive committee of the lodge reports over $500 as the earnings of Myrtle Lodge's booth at the recent fair.

Officers Installed.

Rathbone Temple, No. 1, Rathbone Sisters, on Friday evening installed officers for the ensuing six months as follows: Past chief, Mrs. A. R. Walte; most excellent chief, Mrs. Annie Sullivan; excellent senior, Mrs. Eliza Lewis; excellent junior, Miss Mary Steiner; manager, Mrs. C. Bushby; mistress of records and correspondence, Miss Evelyn Padgett; mistress of finance, Mrs. T. A. Bynum; inner guard, Mrs. D. O'Driscoll; and outer guard, Mrs. Estelle Kahler. Mrs. Walte's term as most excellent has seen a number of additions to the temple. The prize of a pin to the sister securing the most new members, offered by Mrs. Walte, was awarded to Mrs. Bynum. The presentation was made at the temple Friday evening. Refreshments were served.

Red Cross Conferred.

Columbia Commandery, No. 1, K. T., conferred the Red Cross Friday night. Eminent Sir Harry H. Heist of Mary Commandery, No. 36, of Philadelphia, was elected an honorary member of the commandery.

The following notes are obtained from the current official circular of Columbia Commandery, No. 1, K. T.:

"At our last stated convocation the illustrious Order of the Red Cross was conferred, R. E. Grand Commander Sir Knight Alex. McKenzie was present, and in his remarks took occasion to thank the sir knights for the courteous treatment he received at their hands during our recent pilgrimage to Philadelphia. At that convocation the usual traditional jewel from the commandery and a past commander's sword from individual sir knights were presented to our junior past commander, Sir Knight Alex. Grant, who thanked the commandery and the sir knights individually in a beautiful speech for these handsome tokens of their love and friendship."

Pythian Excursion.

Justus H. Rathbone Lodge, No. 29, Knights of Pythias, gave a complimentary excursion to its members and friends to Marshall Hall Monday evening. It is the custom of this lodge named for the founder of the order—to give such excursions annually for the purpose of advancing fraternalism and friendship among those attending. The excursion of the present year was very enjoyable and successful, all the committees carrying out their plans perfectly. A number of interesting contests were had on the grounds at Marshall Hall. Knight Charles Sweet won the bowling contest, Knight R. Cromwell demonstrated himself the best shot, and Knight Talbot I. Pulizal was declared the champion. The grand chancellor and other Grand Lodge officers were present and there were also delegations from Falls Church and Mount Pleasant.

Ascalon Temple Installs Officers.

Ascalon Temple, No. 81, D. O. K. K., had a meeting Friday night for the installation of officers at the rooms of the Grand Lodge, K. of P., in the Warder Building. Imperial Nawab Nottley Anderson acted as installing officer, and inducted the following into their new positions: Venerable sheik, George W. Hefley; royal vizier, Warren J. Coffin; grand emir, Thomas A. Bynum; secretary, Joseph B. Courter; treasurer, Albert Kahler; mahedi, Johnson T. Heare; satrap, G. Milton Thomas. Royal Vizier Coffin announced that he would complete his list of appointments and announce them at the next session of the temple.

Patriotic.

Camp Chooses Officers.

At the last regular meeting of Camp No. 6, Patriotic Order Sons of America, at its hall, 304 B Street southeast, the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: President, John A. Trevalia; vice president, William Lithgow; master of forms, John S. Wagner; conductor, D. T. Garrett; inspector, John W. Lugenbeel; guard, William Cator; trustees, Elmer H. Bailey, John S. Wagner.

Women's Patriotic League.

The Woman's Industrial and Patriotic League held an important meeting last week. The report of the sanitary committee was presented and vigorously discussed. Plans for the lawn party to be given the Rescue League branch of the organization were formulated, and all urged to use their best efforts in making it a success. The lawn party, which is for the destitute and to provide decent burial for the same, is to be given at Fairview, Chevy Chase, on July 18.

Judge Scott an Aide-de-Camp.

Judge Charles F. Scott, of this city, a member of Meade Post No. 5, G. A. R., Department of the Potomac, has been appointed an aide-de-camp on the staff of the commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic. Judge Scott hopes to make the trip to California in August to attend the annual encampment of the organization.

Daughters of America Entertain.

Independent Council No. 2, Daughters of America, gave an entertainment at their hall, 919 Pennsylvania Avenue northwest, on Monday evening last. Among those who contributed to the program were Miss Lizette Gash and Miss Mabel Cosgrove, piano duet; Miss Stella Raymond, vocal solo; Miss Audrey Johnson and Irwin Cosgrove, song, "Under the Bamboo Tree," and a "Love Dance," by little Virginia Owens and Beatrice Cosgrove. Others who assisted were Miss Virgil Raymond, recitation; Miss Young, recitation; Miss Bernice Goodwin, fancy dance; Miss Ida Hays, jiz, and Mr. Niswanger, song. The affair was under the direction of Mrs. Sewell, Mrs. Pulliam, Mrs. Lyles, Mrs. Chace, Mrs. Mann, Miss Shoemaker, Miss Yeaman, Mrs. Stephens, Mrs. Carroll, Mrs. Nash, and Messrs. Stephens, Goss, and Lloyd.

Mosby's Command Reunion.

The tenth annual reunion of the veterans of the Fifty-third Battalion of Virginia Cavalry, Mosby's command, will be held at Culpeper Court House Wednesday, August 5. The arrangements for the reunion are being made by a committee appointed from the command by Commander Joseph Bryen. The reunion exercises will be preceded by a business meeting. H. S. Ashby is adjutant of the organization.

National Auxiliary S. W. V. to Meet.

The National Auxiliary of the Spanish War Veterans will meet in annual session at New Haven, Conn., on the same days in September on which will be held the yearly assembly of the National Army and Navy Spanish War Veterans. Mrs. Flora A. Lewis, president general of the National Auxiliary, whose headquarters are in this city, has issued orders to this end. The dates for the convention will be between September 23 and 30 next, the exact time to be fixed by Commander-in-Chief Urell, of the Spanish War Veterans.

The election of national officers and several important matters will come before the auxiliary for action. The question of membership in subordinate auxiliaries is one of these.

A movement to restrict membership will be opposed by a numerous faction in the organization composed mainly of those who rendered service to the soldiers and sailors as members of relief associations. The contest over this matter promises to be lively.

The presidency of the National Auxiliary will furnish another lively contest. The candidates mentioned so far to succeed Mrs. Lewis are Mrs. Elmy M. Avery and Mrs. Isabelle Alexander, both of Cleveland, Ohio, and Mrs. W. H. Hubbard, of Brooklyn, N. Y., widow of the late commander-in-chief of the S. W. V. Of the eleven present national officers nine are Washingtonians, while five of the twelve members of the council of administration are residents of this city. From a statement just issued by Miss Agnes I. Little, of this city, secretary general of the auxiliary, it appears that the organization is rapidly increasing in membership, new auxiliaries having been recently organized at Iona, Mich., Brooklyn, N. Y.; Bay City, Mich.; Port Chester, N. Y.; Lewistown, Me., and Detroit, Mich., while others are being formed in Illinois, Maryland, New Jersey, and Virginia.

The auxiliary just organized to Newell Rising Command, S. W. V., of Port Chester, N. Y., was named the Flora A. Lewis Auxiliary, in honor of the president general. One of the proposed New Jersey auxiliaries will be named in honor of Mrs. John A. Logan, the first president general of the National Auxiliary.

RECREATION.

Canoeists to Go Into Camp.

The Interclub Canoe Association went into annual encampment Wednesday on the broad waters of the Potomac, near Little Falls, opposite Plum Island. The formal opening of the camp was held Wednesday night and there were many of their friends present to assist in the festivities. Thursday evening was designated as "stag night" and the entertainment was devoted exclusively to men. A regatta was held by the club yesterday afternoon and a splendid time was enjoyed. The program included service single, novice double, association championship single and double, club fours, mixed tandem, relay, hurry-scurry, tug-of-war, and tilting contests. One feature of the annual camp will be the Sunday service conducted by the Rev. Walter R. Bushby at 11 o'clock today. At 2 o'clock this afternoon the annual election of officers will be held. The afternoon of Monday will be devoted to the entertainment of their lady friends. The last night in camp will be devoted to a "stag reception" to their men friends.

The Merry-makers.

The Merry-makers held their regular meeting Wednesday evening, July 1, at the residence of H. E. Huntsberry, when all arrangements for a trip to Old Point Comfort, Virginia Beach, and Norfolk were completed. The members of the club will leave the city Friday evening and return Tuesday, after visiting all the points of interest at the above-mentioned places. The young people will be chaperoned by the parents of some of the members of the club.

To Play a Match Game.

The Anacostia Checker Club has engaged to play a match contest Monday evening with the Northeast Checker Club, on H Street northeast, at the headquarters of the latter organization. Those who will play on the Anacostia team are C. H. Weiss, August Miller, Allan Prender, P. S. Quaid, and Dr. James A. Watson.

The Cuckoo Club.

The Cuckoo Club held its regular meeting last night at the residence of E. R. Chism, 717 Twenty-fourth Street northwest. Plans for the future conduct of the club were discussed, and it was finally decided to take a trip to Harper's Ferry on the 15th instant. After its return it is proposed to add a sufficient number to the list of members to form a football team. It is also the purpose of this thriving athletic and social organization to rent a clubhouse at some future date. Among the members present last night were A. Denham, E. R. Chism, R. J. Burns, Le Roy Haskins, William Fox, and Frank T. Hoffmann.

TEMPERANCE.

Anti-Saloon League.

The monthly meeting of the Anti-Saloon League of the District of Columbia was held Thursday night at 522 Sixth Street northwest, with James L. Ewin in the chair. A. N. Canfield serving as recording secretary, and R. E. Harvey as financial secretary. President Ewin reported for the executive committee that subscriptions are coming in for the new volume of the periodical publication of the league, and arrangements have been made for extending its usefulness.

An invitation had been received, Mr. Ewin stated, from Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Smith to the league to hold one of its summer meetings at their residence, "Smithholm," on Conduit Road, and the executive committee recommended that the invitation be accepted for the September meeting. This recommendation was adopted.

Albert E. Shoemaker, the attorney for the league, was present, and reported as to his work before the Excise Board, and as chairman of the committees on protests and law enforcement.

Mr. Canfield, as chairman of the committee of arrangements for the tenth anniversary of the organization of the league, celebrated June 23, reported the satisfactory completion of the work of the committee. Mrs. Isabel Helmick, of the same committee, gave some details of personal visits to thirty-three pastors in the interest of the anniversary.

Communications were received from the Congress Street Methodist Protestant Christian Endeavor Society, and the Christian Templars of Eckington Presbyterian Church naming additional representatives.

Arrangements were made for some special work the present month, and the league adjourned to meet again the evening of Wednesday, August 5, in the same place.

All-Day Meeting Held.

An "all-day" meeting of the "C" department, W. C. T. U., was held Thursday in Park Temple Mission, Sixth and Trumbull Streets northwest, the superintendent, Miss Ella M. Boston, presiding; Mrs. L. E. Crouse acted as secretary. During the morning session reports were heard from the officers and superintendents of the various departments. Mrs. Crouse made a report of the L. T. L. work in her department. The Nineteenth Street Baptist Lincoln Memorial, Anna Murray Douglas, Liberty Baptist, and the L. R. Clarke "Y" unions were represented.

After the noonday devotion Mrs. C. V. Fountain favored the audience with the solo, "I'll Go Where You Want Me to Go." Mrs. R. E. Lawson spoke of the healthy status of the Nineteenth Street Baptist Union, and stated that her union had voted on the previous evening to take the initiative in sending Miss Boston, District superintendent, as an observer to the national convention in Cincinnati, Ohio. The department enthusiastically confirmed the action and pledged co-operation.

Rev. Dr. Toliver, pastor of Liberty Baptist Church, made some remarks endorsing the work of the department.

Mrs. Helen Jackson, president of the A. M. Douglas Union, read a paper on the "Twentieth Century Woman."

The meeting closed with the benediction.

WOMEN'S CLUBS.

Off to the Convention.

Mrs. Lula Murrell, of this city, the supreme matron of the Daughters of the Sphinx of the World, left here last night for Boston, where the order holds its annual session, beginning next Monday. Mrs. Murrell was accompanied by the delegates from Australia and Hawaii. These delegates are Mme. A. Rodriguez and Miss La Forest, of Sydney, and Mme. L. Curran, of Honolulu. The Daughters of the Sphinx is said to be the largest organization of women in the world, and has subordinate bodies everywhere.

CHARITABLE.

The Working Boys' Home.

The small boys at the Working Boys' Home have left for the summer vacation. They have been taken by parents and interested friends into the country, where, from all reports, they are immensely enjoying the delights of the long vacation. In the meantime the older lads who are obliged to work during the entire summer have some from the gymnasium to the home proper, where efforts are made to make their vacation pleasant, despite the necessity of labor during the heated term.

Educational.

Alumni Organized.

Former students of the Kansas Normal College met at the home of Andrew Wilson, 1315 Wallach Place northwest, Wednesday evening and formed a social club. Officers were elected as follows: J. D. Nevius, president; Mrs. George L. Clayton, vice president; Mrs. John L. Knopp, secretary; W. H. Kerr, treasurer, and Andrew Wilson, historian; C. D. Easterling, Thomas A. Scott, and J. E. Magers, committee on constitution.

After a recess and refreshments the meeting adjourned subject to call.

The following were present and enrolled as charter members: Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Nevius, Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Easterling, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Kerr, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Knopp, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Hull, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Easterling, Mr. and Mrs. George L. Clayton, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Nevius, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Easterling, John S. Biggs, Elam W. Robins, Henry C. Wilmoth, Emmet D. Walker and R. A. Nelgner.

Summer Program.

The Christian Brothers of Duty, composing the faculty of St. John's College, located on Vermont Avenue northwest, left Washington last Thursday evening for their summer vacation.

Brother Abbas, the president, will proceed to Ocean Rest, on the New Jersey coast, where he will assume charge of the Catholic summer school held annually at that place. The other members of the faculty will spend a few weeks at the brothers' house at Ammenade, Md. Later they will go to Ocean Rest for a short stay. Early in August they will all assemble at Rockhill College, Ellicott City, Md., where they will enter a spiritual retreat that will begin August 8 and continue one week.

The faculty will return to Washington after the retreat and arrange for the reopening of the college.

Trinity College Commencement.

Washington was well represented at the seventy-seventh commencement of Trinity College, Hartford, Conn. John Minton Syphax, a former Washington boy, was the class day orator, and spoke interestingly on "Germany in the Days of Bismarck." Hermann Edward Townsend, of Washington, was the college marshal, one of the greatest honors in the gift of the undergraduates. "Muncie" Townsend, as he is familiarly called, is a junior and one of the best fullbacks on Trinity football teams. Karl Fenning, of Washington, was another graduate standing well in his class.

Agora of the States.

Franklin Webster Smith, of the Halls of the Ancients, gave three lectures on the Fourth of July to the public of Washington, exhibiting and explaining his Agora of the States, which he purposes shall be built on Sixteenth Street, between L and M, replacing two blocks of slums. They were well attended, and an explanatory lecture of the Halls was afterwards given. The National Society for the Aggrandizement of Washington will be formed in a few days to bring about the proposed Agora and the National Galleries of History and Art.

RELIGIOUS.

Sunday School Outing.

The Sunday schools of the First Baptist, Hamline M. E., McKendree M. E. and Brightwood M. E. churches united in their annual excursion Friday to Marshall Hall. The Macalester made three trips, taking down a large number from each school.

The day was greatly enjoyed by all, the little people participating in baseball and other outdoor sports.

Missionary Work.

The National Cathedral of St. Peter and Paul is already doing important mission work. A staff of five clerics, one deaconess and a number of lay readers, under the supervision of the bishop, are laboring in different sections of the city. They have been gratified by the splendid results. Good Shepherd, All Saints, Benning, where open air even songs are held on summer evenings, and a mission at Tenley, Conduit Road, are all missions of the cathedral. Thus the evangelistic work of the cathedral is in advance of the cathedral building itself, and this is in accordance with ancient precedent.

Esther Chapel Choir Entertained.

There was a pleasant gathering recently at the home of Miss Katharine E. Cook at Bellevue, when the choir of the Esther Memorial Episcopal Chapel of Congress Heights was entertained. Games and music were indulged in until a late hour, after which refreshments were served. Those present were Mrs. Eva Beyer, Miss Edna Brook, Miss Bertie Cox, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Grimes, Mrs. Prevost, M. J. Fillius, Miss Clara Schatz, Miss Ruth Alford, and Richard Roberts.

Sunday Schools Join in Excursion.

An excursion to River View of the Sunday schools of the Maryland Avenue, Second, and West Washington Baptist churches took place Friday. The members of the schools entered upon a number of contests with the understanding that the first one in each contest should score five points for his school, the second one in three points, and the third one in two points. The result follows:

Baseball game between the Second Church and the other schools combined, the winner to score six points. Games was won by the combined team, 21 to 5, thus giving the West Washington and Maryland Avenue each three points.

Running, 100 yards, for boys twelve years or under—John Priest, first; Earl Keating, second; Lee Hayes, third.

Running, 100 yards, for boys eighteen years or under—Clarence Sorrell, first; Charles Koons, second; Turner Beckhard, third.

Potato race for girls—Annie E. Coberth, first; Mildred Dunnington, second; Marion Ireland, third.

Three-legged race—Frank Swank and Daniel Priest, first; Maurice Beckham and James W. Morse, second; James Cissel and Thomas Jones, third.

Hit the hat—Lucy Coberth, first; Mabel Cissel, second; Jennie Woltz, third.

Wheelbarrow race—W. E. Waters, first; John Durisol, second; L. C. Blake, third.

Egg race—Maurice Beckham, first; W. C. Fisher, second; Frank Swank, third.

Throwing baseball by girls—Annie E. Coberth, first; Elsie Cissel, second; Mable Davis, third.

Sack race—John Durisol, first; James Morse, second; Clarence Sorrell, third.

Net result: West Washington, 37 points; Maryland Avenue, 32 points; Second Church, 27 points.

COMMERCIAL.

Bank Clerks' Outing.

On Saturday next Washington Chapter of the American Institute of Bank Clerks will give its first annual excursion to River View. There will be two boats, at 3 p. m. and 6:45 p. m. The members of Baltimore Chapter have been invited as the guests of the local chapter, and a suitable program arranged, which will include baseball and a bowling contest. It is expected that as many as possible will go down on the early boat, and help make the occasion a pleasant one for the visiting chapter and all concerned.

The bank clerks, irrespective of chapter membership, are taking an active and interesting part in this affair, and from the present outlook it promises to be successful beyond what had been anticipated.

The prime object of this excursion is to raise funds to enable the chapter to carry on its educational work. Its programs for the past years have not always been as good as desired. For this the lack of funds is largely responsible, but with a successful excursion, and its advertisement through this means, which must result in an increased membership, the chapter officers will be better able to offer to all bank clerks inducements to become members. Association and the acquaintance of those in the profession will help largely to a better feeling in business relations, and while a non-member may be a good bank clerk, it is believed that a hardworking, conscientious chapter member is in a fair way to become a better one.

Local Surety Association Banquet.

The District of Columbia Surety Association indulged in a reunion and outing Friday evening at Cabin John Bridge the occasion proving to be a most enjoyable one. A feature of the evening was a banquet. After an elaborate menu had received proper attention speech-making was in order. E. B. Hay officiated as toastmaster. The party returned to the city on special cars. The officers of the association are: John S.

Swormstedt, president; John S. Loud, vice president, and William H. Ronsaville, secretary-treasurer.

The arrangements for the reunion and outing were made by a committee consisting of George T. Parker, L. O. De Launham, and Edwin B. Hay.

COMMONWEALTH CLUBS.

Missouri Ladies Meet.

The Missouri Ladies' Literary Club met last Tuesday evening at the residence of Mrs. J. W. Witten, 1901 Fifth Street northwest. This being the last meeting of the season, no literary work was arranged, and the gentlemen friends of the members were invited to be present. After a brief business meeting the club adjourned and devoted the evening to the entertainment of its guests. A short program, consisting of piano duet by the Misses Dill, vocal solo by Mr. McCordell, recitation by Miss Peterson, and piano solo by Miss McCordell, was enjoyed by all. Games, and the serving of punch, ices, and cake contributed much to the evening's pleasure. Mrs. Witten was assisted in receiving the club and its guests by her daughter, Miss Hazel Witten.

Illinois Annual Excursion.

The annual excursion given by the Illinois Republican Association to Marshall Hall on Friday was attended by 2,000 Illinoisans residing in Washington. Notwithstanding the heat of the day and the storm of the evening, the "love feast" was a decided success. Appropriate exercises were held on board the steamer, "Illinois" was sung by George C. Ross. Addresses were made by Capt. L. M. Kelley, Deputy Commissioner of Pensions; Capt. Henry C. Castle, Auditor for the Postoffice Department; Dr. Edward A. Duncan, retired Secretary of State John Hay's "Tillman Joy."

OCEAN GROVE CELEBRATES

THE GLORIOUS FOURTH

OCEAN GROVE, N. J., July 4.—Ocean Grove had a rousing Independence Day celebration. In the Young People's Temple, at 8:45 a. m., Leader Yatman provided an entertainment which included an address by former Congressman William M. Springer of Illinois, and another by the Rev. Dr. T. S. Henderson, of Brooklyn. There were patriotic songs and music, including President McKinley's favorite hymns, and a grand finale depicting "The Progress of Our Nation."

At 10 a. m., in the Auditorium, another meeting was held. Governor Murphy was present and a stirring oration was delivered by former Senator Edward C. Stokes, of Trenton. This evening, in the same building, Musical Director Morgan gave a patriotic concert, which was enjoyed by an audience numbering 5,000.

Sunday school workers from all parts of the country are now meeting in Ocean Grove. The magnet is the Sunday School Assembly, which opened a ten days' session Thursday morning. The assembly is in charge of the Rev. Dr. Charles L. Mead, of Hoboken. The assembly will have charge of the meetings in the Grove tomorrow, when sermons will be preached by Dr. Mead and Dr. F. Hermance.
